

Starker Lecture Series
Ecosystem Services Capstone Tour
Friday, May 7, 2010
Agenda

Objectives for the Day:

- Visit field sites where ecosystem services are being measured, monitored, and/or marketed.
- Discuss field aspects of measuring and marketing ecosystem services from farm and forest lands.
- Discuss partnerships, funding and other needs to make ecosystem service markets a reality for farm and forest managers.

- 9:00 am Load the Vans and Depart Richardson Courtyard
- 9:15 am Stop #1: Ecosystem Markets for Wetland Mitigation: Evergreen Mitigation Bank- Ray Fiori, Oregon Wetlands LLC
- 10:00 am Depart wetland mitigation bank
- 10:15 am Stop #2: Ecosystem Credits for Fish Habitat Restoration- The Woods Creek Projects- Karen Fleck Harding- Marys River Watershed Council; David Primozich- The Freshwater Trust
- 11:00 am Depart Woods Creek
- 11:15 am Stop #3: Faulk Family Woodlands near Wren; Managing the Family Landscape for Multiple Ecosystem Services-
- Timber, Carbon and Oaks (hike)-Ken Faulk-Forest Landowner and President, OSWA; David Ford- OSWA and Woodlands Carbon; Steve Smith- USF&WS
 - Addressing Landscape Objectives for Conservation- Karen Fleck Harding, Marys River Watershed Council; Steve Smith- USF&WS
- 12:30 pm Depart Faulk Family Woodlands
- 12:45 pm Stop #4: Beazell Memorial Forest on Kings Valley Highway
- Lunch
 - Public Land Participation in Ecosystem Markets? Discussion Leaders: Annabelle Jaramillo, Benton County; Mike Cafferata-Oregon Department of Forestry; Federal Forests- Sally Collins, USDA
 - Ecosystem Services and Forest Management on Beazell Memorial Forest (hike) Mark Miller, Trout Mountain Forestry
- 2:15 pm Depart Beazell for Burnt Woods
- 2:45 pm Stop #4: Van Ek Forest on Shotpouch Creek; Carbon Marketing and Forest Management- Matt Fehrenbacher, Pacific Forest Trust.
- 3:30 pm Depart Van Ek property for return to Corvallis.
- 4:15 pm Arrive back at Richardson Hall

Van Drivers: Greg Vollmer; Paul Adams, Doug Maguire, Doug Mainwaring, David Zahler, Joe Holmberg, Gary Springer (Starker Bus).